

UrbanMetaMapping Semester Talks: Summer Term 2022 via zoom, 12.00 - 13.00 (CEST)

Registration via: talks.urbanmetamapping@uni-bamberg.de

The UrbanMetaMapping Research Consortium warmly invites you to the second semester of our online, midday academic talks on issues connected to our research interests on mapping man-made and natural catastrophes, heritage, urban planning, and digital tools used for researching these. Meetings take place every third Wednesday of each month at noon and will last for an hour (including Q&A). will provide an exciting platform to discuss with international scholars their research and exchange ideas.

We look forward to you joining us for the UrbanMetaMapping Seminar Series!

Program

April 20:

Dominik Kremer: Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg

"Go home, bus! You come from, where Corona is!" The use of spatial metaphors as a tool for reducing complexity in times of a crisis.

May 18:

Sofia Dyak: Center for Urban History, Lviv

Adapting and Reusing the Built Environment in a Postwar and Postdisplacement City

June 22:

Clara Rellensmann: Brandenburg University of Technology Cottbus-Senftenberg

Living heritage or the testimony of a military dictatorship? Mapping Bagan's Transformation between 1995 and 2011

July 20:

Serafeim Alvanides: GESIS - Leibniz-Institute for the Social Sciences

Spatiotemporal analysis of toponymic changes in Leipzig and Poznań over 100 years

 UrbanMetaMapping

SPONSORED BY THE

